Caldwell police on Tuesday, Feb. 3, arrested three Caldwell men on aggravated robbery charges in connection with the Jan. 24 armed robbery of a Caldwell Pizza Hut employee making a night deposit at BB&T Bank. They included David Cormier, 18, Aaron Michael Pierce, 17, and Samuel Cristian Enrique, 18, said Caldwell Police Chief Charles Barnes.

All three were booked into the Burleson County Jail with bond pending at press time, Barnes said. A 16-year-old boy will also be charged in the case later this week as a juvenile, Barnes said.

Two of the men charged worked at the restaurant at the time of the robbery, and the third was an ex-employee, he said. The juvenile did not work there, he said.

Caldwell Police Detective Steven Reed and Sgt. John Bennett made the arrests on Tuesday, Feb. 3, after a 10-day investigation, he said.

Police learned of the robbery when an employee flagged down Caldwell Police Officer Casey Lemoyne at 1:18 a.m. on State Highway 36 and Fawna Streets to report that he had just been robbed, Barnes said. The employee said a masked man approached him as he made the deposit on the bank, he said.

The robber aimed a pistol at him, demanded the money and left on foot, turning south on Shaw Street and then heading toward downtown off Main Street, he said.

Another suspect was hiding nearby and also fled the scene on foot but did not hold up the bank, Barnes said.

Another suspect was arrested by the Caldwell County Sheriff's Office Sunday, Feb. 2, a juvenile, Barnes said. He said the juvenile did not hold up the bank.

With the total reported on Aug. 31, the bank had $4.3 million in deposits, according to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

A 15-year-old Bryan man was also arrested on an aggravated sexual assault charge following an aggregation kidnapping charges, he said.

He had robbed the victim on Friday, Jan. 30, to the aggregation kidnapping charge and was sentenced to 36 years in prison.

As part of a plea bargain agreement, the aggregated sexual assault charge was dismissed, district attorney Julie Renken said.

The case stemmed from a 21-year-old Bryan woman saying she was kidnapped on Friday, Jan. 30, 2015, and was arrested the next day after a 10-day investigation, he said.

A 16-year-old boy will also be charged in the case later this week as a juvenile, Barnes said.

The juvenile did not work there, he said.

Caldwell police on Tuesday, Feb. 3, arrest- ed three Caldwell men on aggravated robbery charges in connection with the Jan. 24 armed robbery of a Caldwell Pizza Hut employee making a night deposit at BB&T Bank. They included David Cormier, 18, Aaron Michael Pierce, 17, and Samuel Cristian Enrique, 18, said Caldwell Police Chief Charles Barnes.

All three were booked into the Burleson County Jail with bond pending at press time, Barnes said. A 16-year-old boy will also be charged in the case later this week as a juvenile, Barnes said.

Two of the men charged worked at the restaurant at the time of the robbery, and the third was an ex-employee, he said. The juvenile did not work there, he said.

Caldwell Police Detective Steven Reed and Sgt. John Bennett made the arrests on Tuesday, Feb. 3, after a 10-day investigation, he said.

Police learned of the robbery when an employee flagged down Caldwell Police Officer Casey Lemoyne at 1:18 a.m. on State Highway 36 and Fawna Streets to report that he had just been robbed, Barnes said. The employee said a masked man ap- proached him as he made the deposit on the bank, he said.

The robber aimed a pistol at him, demanded the money and left on foot, turning south on Shaw Street and then heading toward downtown off Main Street, he said.

Another suspect was hiding nearby and also fled the scene on foot but did not hold up the bank, Barnes said.

Another suspect was arrested by the Caldwell County Sheriff's Office Sunday, Feb. 2, a juvenile, Barnes said. He said the juvenile did not hold up the bank.

With the total reported on Aug. 31, the bank had $4.3 million in deposits, according to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

A 15-year-old Bryan man was also arrested on an aggravated sexual assault charge following an aggregation kidnapping charges, he said.

He had robbed the victim on Friday, Jan. 30, to the aggregation kidnapping charge and was sentenced to 36 years in prison.

As part of a plea bargain agreement, the aggregated sexual assault charge was dismissed, district attorney Julie Renken said.

The case stemmed from a 21-year-old Bryan woman saying she was kidnapped on Friday, Jan. 30, 2015, and was arrested the next day after a 10-day investigation, he said.

A 16-year-old boy will also be charged in the case later this week as a juvenile, Barnes said.

The juvenile did not work there, he said.

Caldwell police on Tuesday, Feb. 3, arrest- ed three Caldwell men on aggravated robbery charges in connection with the Jan. 24 armed robbery of a Caldwell Pizza Hut employee making a night deposit at BB&T Bank. They included David Cormier, 18, Aaron Michael Pierce, 17, and Samuel Cristian Enrique, 18, said Caldwell Police Chief Charles Barnes.

All three were booked into the Burleson County Jail with bond pending at press time, Barnes said. A 16-year-old boy will also be charged in the case later this week as a juvenile, Barnes said.

Two of the men charged worked at the restaurant at the time of the robbery, and the third was an ex-employee, he said. The juvenile did not work there, he said.

Caldwell Police Detective Steven Reed and Sgt. John Bennett made the arrests on Tuesday, Feb. 3, after a 10-day investigation, he said.

Police learned of the robbery when an employee flagged down Caldwell Police Officer Casey Lemoyne at 1:18 a.m. on State Highway 36 and Fawna Streets to report that he had just been robbed, Barnes said. The employee said a masked man ap- proached him as he made the deposit on the bank, he said.

The robber aimed a pistol at him, demanded the money and left on foot, turning south on Shaw Street and then heading toward downtown off Main Street, he said.

Another suspect was hiding nearby and also fled the scene on foot but did not hold up the bank, Barnes said.

Another suspect was arrested by the Caldwell County Sheriff's Office Sunday, Feb. 2, a juvenile, Barnes said. He said the juvenile did not hold up the bank.

With the total reported on Aug. 31, the bank had $4.3 million in deposits, according to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

A 15-year-old Bryan man was also arrested on an aggravated sexual assault charge following an aggregation kidnapping charges, he said.

He had robbed the victim on Friday, Jan. 30, to the aggregation kidnapping charge and was sentenced to 36 years in prison.

As part of a plea bargain agreement, the aggregated sexual assault charge was dismissed, district attorney Julie Renken said.

The case stemmed from a 21-year-old Bryan woman saying she was kidnapped on Friday, Jan. 30, 2015, and was arrested the next day after a 10-day investigation, he said.

A 16-year-old boy will also be charged in the case later this week as a juvenile, Barnes said.

The juvenile did not work there, he said.